Adult Learning and Literacy:

- funds agencies and organizations to provide a continuum of adult learning in Manitoba through adult literacy programs and adult learning centres
- administers General Education Development (GED) testing and certification.

Adult learning and literacy programs are:

- tuition-free
- located in all regions of Manitoba.

Adults enrolled in adult learning and literacy programs can:

- improve reading, writing, communication, and numeracy skills for work, school, home, and community life
- earn high school credits and/or high school diplomas to access education and employment opportunities.

Adult Literacy Programs offer:

- beginning to advanced literacy programming (Stage 1 – 3) for adult learners in reading, writing, document use, oral communication and numeracy
- assessment and instruction based on the Manitoba Stages Framework
- preparation for the General Education Development (GED) certificate.

Adult Learning Centres offer:

- high school credit courses and issue high school diplomas on the basis of provincial high school graduation requirements. Courses are taught by Manitoba certified teachers and follow Manitoba Curriculum Frameworks
- the option of earning up to 4 course credits tuition-free after graduation to obtain the prerequisites to pursue further post-secondary education, training, or employment opportunities.
- recognition of prior learning services
- non-credit instruction that addresses the upgrading needs of learners prior to enrolling in high school level courses.

Description of the Adult Literacy and/or Adult Learning Centre Program:
 The Kelsey Learning Centre (KLC) Literacy/Adult Learning Centre programs take the learner from where they are academically and personally, preparing them to earn a Province of Manitoba, Mature Student High school Diploma. Alongside the academic preparation, adults are exposed to micro-credentialing opportunities to help develop and strengthen their resumes for potential career pathway improvements or employment opportunities. Mature Student High school Diploma Credit courses are classroom based, with delivery in smaller learner friendly classroom settings. Both synchronous daily attendance and asynchronous models are available to the individual learners, which are identified in their unique learning plans. The staff of KLC create a non-threatening environment and builds an atmosphere where it is safe for our learners to experience success. Kelsey Learning Centre is located inside of University College of the North's, The Pas Campus. Learners enjoy a post-secondary setting, with all the benefits of campus life while attending our programming. Community based supports are available through referrals from our office. Learners who have faced past negative educational experiences will develop self confidence, self esteem improvements, and most importantly a "can do" attitude and approach to life long learning.
 Your learning journey begins today, let us help you #changeyourlife
