

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
-------------------------	----

Introduction	1
Our Vision	1
Purpose and Audience	1
Learning Landscapes: The Manitoba Curriculum and the Classroom Environment	2
Guiding Principles	3
Using This Document	4

Chapter 1: Kindergarten in Manitoba: Past and Present	9
A Brief History of Kindergarten in Manitoba	11
Kindergarten Today	15
Nursery School and Junior Kindergarten	17
Multi-age Classrooms	18
Summary	19

Chapter 2: A Foundation in Play	21
CMEC Statement on Play-Based Learning	23
Kinds of Play	25
Exploratory Play	26
Constructive Play	26
Symbolic Play	27
Socio-Dramatic Play	27
Games with Rules	28
Development across the Domains through Play	29
Physical Health and Well-being	30
Emotional Maturity	32
Social Competence	33
Language and Thinking Skills	35
Communication Skills and General Knowledge	36
Developmental Health at School Entry	37
Using a Play-Based Approach	39
Summary	43

Chapter 3: The View of the Child	45
Guiding Principle: The Child	47
Thinking about Child Development	47
Brain Research	48
Child Development Theories and Approaches	49
A Developmentally Appropriate Approach	56
Developmentally Responsive Teaching	58
Nurturing Curiosity and Creativity	59
Learning about Differences	60
Young Children and Identity Formation	61
Developing Literacy and Numeracy	63
Listening and Speaking	64
Growing Readers and Writers in Kindergarten	65
Growing Mathematicians in Kindergarten	73
Summary	75
<hr/>
Chapter 4: Teaching and Learning Strategies	77
Guiding Principle: The Teacher	79
Intentionality	79
Developmentally Appropriate Teaching Strategies	81
Observing and Documenting Children’s Learning	86
Improving Your Observational Skills	89
Planning for Learning	97
Co-constructing Learning	97
Implementing an Integrated Inquiry Approach	98
Ways to Plan	98
Inquiry Planning	100
Backward Design Curriculum Planning	101
Documenting Children’s Learning	104
Documentation Displays	105
Analyzing Your Pedagogical Documentation	108
Assessment through Play-Based Learning in Kindergarten	111
Screening and Early Identification	111
Authentic Assessment	115
Class Profile	117
Communicating Student Learning to Parents	118
Guiding Principle: Inclusion and Diversity	120

Diversity in a Classroom	121
Manitoba’s Philosophy of Inclusion	121
Inclusive Schools	122
Instructional Supports for Addressing Student Diversity	123
Differentiated Instruction	123
Adaptation	124
Modification	125
Individualized Programming	125
Individual Education Plans (IEPs)	125
Guiding Children’s Behaviour	127
Summary	131
<hr/>
Chapter 5: Designing the Learning Environment	133
Guiding Principle: The Environment	135
Guiding Principle: The Schedule	135
Four Dimensions of the Learning Environment	136
Time	136
Space	143
Things	150
People	156
Organizing the Classroom	159
Choice Time	159
Scaffolding Learning	162
Summary	165
<hr/>
Chapter 6: Learning through Play	167
Guiding Principle: The Learning Program	169
The Rationale for Play Centres	169
Suggestions for Play Centres	171
Permanent Play Centres	171
Arts Education Centres	187
Discovery or Exploration Centres	195
Special-Interest Centres	203
Summary	221

Chapter 7: The Learning Landscapes	223
Guiding Principle: The Learning Program	225
The Provincial Curriculum within the Kindergarten Setting	225
The Role of the Curriculum in a Play-Based Environment	226
Learning Landscapes: Multiple Ways of Knowing	227
Rich Learning Contexts	230
Summary	236
<hr/>
Chapter 8: Play throughout the Kindergarten Curriculum	237
Guiding Principle: The Learning Program	239
Kindergarten Curricula at a Glance: Snapshots of the Core Curricular Areas	239
Arts Education Landscapes: Dance, Drama, Music, and Visual Arts	240
English Language Arts Landscapes	247
Mathematics Landscapes	251
Science Landscapes	255
Social Studies Landscapes	261
Physical Education/Health Education Landscapes	265
The Landscapes of English as an Additional Language	268
Summary	272
<hr/>
Chapter 9: The Integratable Elements	273
Guiding Principle: The Learning Program	275
Guiding Principle: Inclusion and Diversity	275
Kindergarten Integratables at a Glance	275
The Landscape of Education for Sustainable Development	278
The Landscape of First Nations, Métis, and Inuit Perspectives	282
The Landscape of Literacy with Information and Communication Technology	286
The Landscape of Diversity Education and Inclusion	292
Summary	298
<hr/>
Chapter 10: Continuity and Partnerships	303
Guiding Principle: Partnerships and Continuity	305
The Importance of Family and Community	305
Continuity and Discontinuity	306
Indigenous Families	307
Factors That Influence Children within Their Families	308

The Changing Family	308
Manitoba’s Changing Tapestry	309
Children in the Media Age	310
Stress and Mental Health	311
Obesity and Physical Activity	311
Preschool Experience	311
Involvement and Engagement of Families	313
Engaging Families in Play-Based Learning	316
Alignment Eases Transitions	321
Licensed Early Learning and Child Care	322
Community-Based Parent-Child Programs	323
Partnerships with School and Divisional Staff	326
The Transdisciplinary Approach	327
Transition Planning	334
Moving from Preschool to Kindergarten	334
Visiting Next Year’s School and Classroom	336
Gradual Entrance	337
Partnerships with the Grade 1 Teacher	337
Summary	340

Afterword	343
------------------	-----

Appendices	347
Appendix A: Early Development Instrument (EDI)	349
Appendix B: Language Prompts for Movement Patterns to Form Letters	353
Appendix C: Kindergarten Play Observation Notepad	355
Appendix D: A Running Record of _____	357
Appendix E: Inquiry Planning	359
Appendix F: Backward Design Curriculum Planning	361
Appendix G: Learning Story	363
Appendix H: Student Tracking Sheet	365
Appendix I: Class Profile Recording Form (Sample)	367
Appendix J: St. James-Assiniboia School Division—Kindergarten Report Card	369
Appendix K: Evergreen School Division—Junior Kindergarten Progress and Celebration Report	373
Appendix L: Resources Supporting Inclusion	375
Appendix M: The Principles of Universal Design	377

Appendix N: Strategy for Solving Conflicts	379
Appendix O: Sample Schedules	381
Appendix P: Simple Recipes for Children	383
Appendix Q: The Learning Landscapes: Multiple Ways of Knowing	389
Appendix R: Rich Learning Contexts	391
Appendix S: Elders in the Classroom	393

Glossary	395
-----------------	-----

Bibliography	407
---------------------	-----