General Learning Outcome 1
Explore thoughts, ideas, feelings, and experiences.

Discover and Explore

- Express Ideas (1.1.1)
  Consider the potential of emerging ideas through a variety of means to develop tentative positions.

- Consider Others’ Ideas (1.1.2)
  Seek and consider others’ ideas through a variety of means to expand understanding.

- Experiment with Language and Forms (1.1.3)
  Demonstrate a willingness to take risks in language use and experiment with language and forms of expression.

- Express Preferences (1.1.4)
  Pursue and expand interests and ideas through sharing reactions to and preferences for particular texts [including books] and genres by various writers, artists, storytellers, and filmmakers.

- Set Goals (1.1.5)
  Assess personal language learning and select strategies to enhance growth in language learning.

Clarify and Extend

- Develop Understanding (1.2.1)
  Clarify and shape understanding by assessing connections between new and prior knowledge, ideas, and experiences.

- Explain Opinions (1.2.2)
  Explain opinions, providing support or reasons; anticipate other viewpoints.

- Combine Ideas (1.2.3)
  Connect ideas and experiences through a variety of means to gain understanding when generating and responding to texts.

- Extend Understanding (1.2.4)
  Explore ways in which real and vicarious experiences and various perspectives affect understanding when generating and responding to texts.
General Outcome 1

Students will listen, speak, read, write, view, and represent to explore thoughts, ideas, feelings, and experiences.

Using language to explore thoughts, feelings, and experiences is an important human activity. Exploratory language, which is largely spontaneous, enables students to discover and understand what they think, what they feel, and who they are. Describing and questioning personal observations, experiences, and feelings extend self-understanding and knowledge. In addition, exploratory language helps students establish and maintain relationships. Exploratory language facilitates taking risks, engaging in dialogue, and exploring alternatives and possibilities. Its use creates an atmosphere for productive and purposeful exchanges of ideas. Ultimately, exploratory language leads to better solutions and decisions in the home, workplace, and community.

Exploratory language provides opportunities for students to develop intellectually and socially. Students make observations, ask questions, hypothesize, make predictions, and form opinions through talk, discussion, and active listening. Students also clarify their thinking through writing. When students see their ideas, thoughts, feelings, and experiences in writing, they can reconsider, revise, and elaborate on them in thoughtful ways. Reading and viewing enable students to gather and verify information, identify areas for further inquiry or research, and develop support for opinions. Ideas and their interrelationships may be explored through representations such as diagrams, concept webs, charts, and other visual media.

As students progress through the grades, they develop facility in using exploratory language to achieve the other English language arts learning outcomes. For example, exploratory talk and writing enhance students’ comprehension by accessing their prior knowledge and experiences before listening, reading, and viewing, and subsequently help them understand and manage ideas and information. Students use exploratory language when analyzing, evaluating, and responding to texts, and when deciding how to use language more effectively. They use conversation to collaborate and to develop a classroom community. Exploratory language is used throughout all five of the general outcomes.

Senior 2

Develop Understanding
- clarify and shape understanding by assessing connections between new and prior knowledge, ideas, and experiences

Explain Opinions
- explain opinions, providing support or reasons; anticipate other viewpoints

Combine Ideas
- connect ideas and experiences through a variety of means to gain understanding when generating and responding to texts

Extend Understanding
- explore ways in which real and vicarious experiences and various perspectives affect understanding when generating and responding to texts

Senior 3

- examine and adjust initial understanding according to new knowledge, ideas, experiences, and responses from others
- explore various viewpoints and consider the consequences of particular positions when generating and responding to texts
- combine ideas and information through a variety of means to clarify understanding when generating and responding to texts
- extend understanding by exploring and acknowledging multiple perspectives and ambiguities when generating and responding to texts

Senior 4

- explain how new knowledge, ideas, experiences, and perspectives reshape knowledge, ideas, and beliefs
- explore the strengths and limitations of various viewpoints on an issue or topic and identify aspects for further consideration; evaluate implications of particular perspectives when generating and responding to texts
- consider ways in which interrelationships of ideas provide insight when generating and responding to texts
- extend breadth and depth of understanding by considering various experiences, perspectives, and sources of knowledge when generating and responding to texts
