

Manitoba Education, Citizenship
and Youth presents

Literacy Across the Curriculum

NEW DATES!

9:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m., August 21 and 22, 2008

1567 Dublin Avenue, Winnipeg, MB

FOCUS FOR 2008:

WRITING AND REPRESENTING-TO-LEARN
ACROSS THE CURRICULUM

Based on current research, theory, the ELA Foundation for Implementation documents, and information about best practices, Middle and Senior Years educators will explore the modes of literacy with a particular focus on writing and representing-to-learn in language arts and content area curricula. Educators and school teams will have the opportunity to share and reflect on planning for literacy across the curriculum.

- For more information, see Manitoba Education, Citizenship and Youth's Professional Learning Opportunities booklet and poster at: www.edu.gov.mb.ca/k12/proflearn/
- Online registration is available at: <https://www4.edu.gov.mb.ca/workshops/>
- There is no cost for this professional learning opportunity.

FEATURING...

- Mary-Kate McDonald
Traditional storyteller and writer
- Barbara Boerchers
Middle Years teacher
- Syd Korsunsky
Senior Years ELA teacher
- Other content area teachers to be announced

For more information,
please contact:

Shelley Warkentin
1-800-282-8069 ext.6836;
945-6836
Email:
shelley.warkentin@gov.mb.ca