Conflict Resolution - Case Studies

Case Study #1
Claire, Francine, and Alan

On her way to school, Claire often bullies two younger students named Francine and Alan. She chases them, pulls their hair, and sometimes takes their recess treats. She also makes them steal things from other students’ desks and give them to her.

One day when she gets to school, Claire pushes Alan to the ground because he and Francine do not have any treats to give her. She tells them that she shall really hurt them if they don’t bring her treats the next day. Some other students are nearby and see this.

Case Study #2

Sylvain and Emile

Some Grade 3 boys play soccer together at recess. One day Sylvain, a boy who is bigger than the rest, tells the other boys lies about Emile. He says Emile stole pencils from the teacher’s desk. He says that Emile is stupid.

For the next few recesses, when Emile tries to play soccer, Sylvain and two other boys tell him to get lost. They will not let him play soccer.

After recess, Sylvain and the two other boys follow Emile to the washroom. They push him and yell at him. They say that if he tells on them, he will never be able to play soccer again, and they will beat him up.

Now, no one will work or play with Emile. Every time Sylvain goes near Emile, Sylvain pinches Emile or hurts him in some way, and says that Emile had better not tell on him...or else! Emile does not want to go out for recess anymore.

Case Study #3

Catherine and Antoine

The students in a Grade 3 class are painting. Catherine is using a large paintbrush, but wants a smaller one to finish her work. Antoine is also using a large paintbrush, but has a smaller one in front of him that he is not using. When Catherine asks him for the smaller brush, he tells her she has to wait until he is finished. When he turns around, he accidentally touches Catherine’s skirt with his paintbrush and leaves a paint stain. She gets upset and pours water on Antoine’s picture.
