

Government in Upper and Lower Canada 1791-1841— Word Cards

Governor General (Lower Canada)	Legislative Council (Lower Canada)
Makes laws for Lower Canada (as approved by Governor General and Executive Council)	Family Compact: Control business, government, and social life in Upper Canada (Friends of Lieutenant Governor)
Has final decision-making power in all matters	Executive Council (advises the Governor General)
Legislative Assembly of Upper Canada (imposes taxes, makes some local laws)	Voters (male property owners of European origins, in Upper Canada)
Voters (male property owners of European origins, in Lower Canada)	Monarchy - British Crown (all government must answer to the Crown)
Legislative Council (Upper Canada)	Lieutenant Governor (Upper Canada)
Executive Council (Advises the Lieutenant Governor)	Legislative Assembly of Lower Canada (imposes taxes, makes some local laws)
Decisions must be approved by:	Legislative Council (Lower Canada)
These people appointed by:	British Government in England
Château Clique: Control business, government and social life in Lower Canada (Friends of Governor General)	Makes laws for Upper Canada (as approved by Lieutenant Governor and Executive Council)