

Anticipation Guide: More-Developed and Less-Developed Nations

Statement	Your First Response (Give reasons.)	Your Later Response (Give reasons.)
1. Population increases more rapidly in the less-developed nations.
2. More-developed nations are countries in which there is no poverty.
3. Better technology can solve the problems of the less-developed nations.
4. Most of the more-developed nations have strong democratic institutions.
5. Urbanization, or the movement of people from rural areas to cities, is strongest in the more-developed nations.
6. There are no skyscrapers, modern communications systems, or industries in the less-developed countries.		