

Concept Overview: What Is a More-Developed Country?

What are the characteristics of a more-developed country?	What are the characteristics of a less-developed country?
Give some examples of more-developed countries.	Give some examples of less-developed countries.
Which regions of the world have the highest number of more-developed countries?	Which regions of the world have the smallest number of more-developed countries?
What are some of the challenges faced by the most-developed nations of the world?	What are some of the challenges faced by the least-developed nations of the world?
Write a personal response or observation based on what you have learned about more- and less-developed countries in the world today.
Attach a map identifying any countries or regions you have named in this concept overview.
What are the benefits and problems with being labeled either more-developed or less-developed? Write your answer on the back of this sheet.	