

International Organizations: Note-Taking Frame

Name of the organization	Website consulted:
Mission or purpose of this organization (in your own words):	How is this organization funded?
Describe a current project of this organization. (Attach photos in a separate electronic file.)	Name two other projects this organization supports.
State some interesting facts you found in this website about global issues:	Describe two suggested ways in which you can get involved in global development:
Insert a quote from a person who is involved in this issue or program:
Describe why you think this organization is worthwhile, and why you chose it.	