

Economy

- What types of work do most people in this society do? Are they well paid?
- Do children in this society work? What do they do?
- Do people have fair working conditions?
- What is the unit of money of this society?
- Are there industries in this country? What products do they export/trade?
- Do most people live in rural areas or urban areas in this country?
- Is agriculture an important part of this country's economy?
- How much money do people earn per year in this society?
- Is poverty a major concern in this society?
- What is the quality of life for people in this society?
- Do most people have adequate food, water, and shelter in this society?
- Is there adequate health care in this society?
- What are the major health problems faced by people in this society?
- Does this society depend upon aid from more-developed nations?

Other Questions:

Technology

- What kinds of tools and technologies are used by people in everyday life and work?
- Do most people have access to televisions, radio, Internet, computers?
- Do most people have access to newspapers and books?
- Does this society produce high-tech products? Which products?
- Are technology and science being used to help increase quality of life in this society (e.g., medical treatments, irrigation, sanitation, et cetera)?
- How do most people travel in this society?
- Does this society have a good system of roads? Trains? Airports?

Other Questions: