

Analyzing Global News Coverage

9.3.1
b

| Description of Global Coverage | News source 1: | News source 2: |
|---|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| List the number of world issues on the front page. | | |
| List the number of national issues on the front page. | | |
| List the number of local issues on the front page. | | |
| List some of the most prominent headlines (note order and print size). | 1. 2. 3. 4. | 1. 2. 3. 4. |
| How long are the headline articles? | 1. 2. 3. 4. | 1. 2. 3. 4. |
| How big and of what quality are the supporting photos? | 1. 2. 3. 4. | 1. 2. 3. 4. |
| Is the story prominently displayed? | 1. 2. 3. 4. | 1. 2. 3. 4. |
| What are some details in the story? | 1. 2. 3. 4. | 1. 2. 3. 4. |
| Is bias evident in the reports? Explain. | | |

Analyzing Global News Coverage

| | | |
|--|--|--|
| Are maps included? | | |
| Are there follow-up articles about ongoing international issues? | | |
| Are several regions of the world represented in the coverage (Americas, Europe, Middle East, Africa, Asia)? | | |
| Did all global news items relate to violence or disaster? | | |
| Was international news easy to find? | | |

Summarize your conclusions.
