Overview

The primary intent of the American History course is to create a greater understanding of significant historical events that shaped the United States. It is intended to be a survey course with a focus and emphasis on those historical developments that have influenced the world, especially Canada. The course will help students explore and better understand the impact that American history has had on shaping American society and influencing other areas of the world.

A further intent is to identify the personalities who, in a significant way, shaped American history and to examine briefly their contributions.

Major Topics

The study is divided into five units:
- Unit I: Colonization, Revolution, and Constitution
- Unit II: Territorial Expansion, Civil War and Reconstruction
- Unit III: Economic, Social and Political Developments, from 1865 – 1919
- Unit IV: Foreign Policy and Domestic Changes from 1895 – 1945
- Unit V: The United States since World War II
