

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	v
-------------------------	---

Introduction	1
Purpose and Audience	1
Key Action Areas to Improve Middle Years Education	2

Middle Years Education in Manitoba	3
Current Realities in Middle Years Education in Manitoba	3
Understanding of and Commitment to Young Adolescents	3
Responsive Teaching and Learning Experiences	4
Learning Relationships	5
Student Voice and Choice	6
Community Involvement	6

Understanding the Need for Transformation	7
Why Do We Need to Transform Middle Years Education?	7
What Is Student Engagement?	8

Engaging Students in Learning: Key Actions	11
1. Develop a Deeper Understanding of Young Adolescents	11
What Is Unique about Young Adolescent Development?	11
What Challenges Do Young Adolescents Face?	13
2. Provide More Responsive Teaching and Learning Experiences	18
What Is Meant By Responsive Teaching and Learning Experiences?	19
How Do Responsive Teaching and Learning Occur in Action?	21
3. Nurture Stronger Learning Relationships	23
What Are Learning Relationships?	23
How Do Educators Build Learning Relationships?	23
4. Increase Student Voice and Choice	25
What Is Meant By Student Voice and Choice?	25
Why Increase Student Voice and Choice?	25

5. Strengthen Community Involvement	27
Why Should Community Involvement Be Strengthened?	27
Transforming Middle Years Education	28
Implications for School Boards and School Division Administrators	28
Implications for School Administrators and Leaders	29
Implications for Teachers	30
<hr/>
Summary	33
<hr/>
Bibliography	35