Anne of Green Gables. [Videocassette]. (1985). [S.I.]: Anne of Green Gables Productions; Sullivan Entertainment; Winnipeg: National Book Service [distributor]. 2 VHS (ca. 194 min.)
SUMMARY: Presents the filmed version of Anne of Green Gables written by Lucy Maud Montgomery. The first program introduces us to the talkative, romantic orphan girl Anne Shirley, who is reluctantly adopted by Marilla and Matthew Cuthbert, despite their initial desire to have a boy help Matthew with his work on the farm. It depicts Anne's struggles to adapt to life in Avonlea, her friendship with Diana Barry, her establishment of relationships with the townspeople and her ongoing rivalry with Gilbert Blythe for top honors at Avonlea School. In Part 2, as Anne and Diana deal with the loss of their friendship, a new teacher Miss Stacey brings a love of learning and encouragement to her students, including Anne and Gilbert Blythe, who wish to go on to university in Charlottetown. When Matthew dies, Anne decides to remain with Marilla and gives up her scholarship to work in a neighbouring town. The program ends with Anne and Gilbert reconciling their differences and becoming friends. Audience: Grades 5 - 12, adult.
