Hands-on Social Studies Grade Two (Stand-Alone). Lawson, Jennifer, et al. Portage & Main Press (PEG), 2003. 209 p. ISBN 1-55379-005-7.

This made-in-Manitoba resource is based on the specific learning outcomes in the Manitoba Grade 2 social studies curriculum, and supports teaching in all three clusters (Our Local Community, Communities in Canada, The Canadian Community). It provides a variety of student activities, background information for teachers, theme vocabulary, learning extensions, Canadian Literature Links, and blackline masters.

This is a well-organized resource that includes creative, interactive, and meaningful student learning activities that connect to social studies, English language arts, art, and science. Assessment strategies are provided and include teacher, student, and group forms.

The resource contains both Canadian and Manitoba content. When learning about languages, cultures, and celebrations, specific references are made to Aboriginal and Francophone communities. When sensitive issues are addressed in learning experiences, teacher notes provide suggestions for approaching the experience with sensitivity to individual, family, and cultural differences. The resource focuses on respecting cultural differences, and reinforces pride in one's own culture.

The resource is coil-bound. It includes a detailed table of contents, and a consistent format for learning experiences including background information for teachers, materials needed, activities, extensions, and activity centres.

Suggested Use: Grade 2; Grade 2 – Cluster 1; Grade 2 – Cluster 2; Grade 2 – Cluster 3; Teacher Reference

In the Global Classroom 1 (Stand-Alone). Pike, Graham. Pippin Publishing Corporation (UTP), 1998. 255 p. ISBN 0-88751-081-7.

This is a softcover Kindergarten to Grade 8 teacher reference resource. This resource emphasizes a teaching and learning strategy that combines child-centred and world-minded educational thinking. It builds frameworks for cross-curricular delivery and offers a wealth of practical and engaging activities for students.

Themes within the text include: interconnections (perceptions, local and global communities); environment and sustainability (natural, built, social, and inner); health (physical, mental, emotional, spiritual, social, societal, and environmental); perception (perceptions and cross-cultural encounters); technology (benefits, tools, problem solving, technological change, social values, and consequences in the future); and futures (alternative, probable, and preferred).

The resource includes materials related to citizenship, diverse-perspectives, global, identity, and economic learning outcome experiences.

Comment: Charts are included at the beginning of each chapter to indicate activities within the chapter and the index. The grade level for which the activities are suggested is not included.

Is That Right? Critical Thinking and the Social World of the Young Learner

(Stand-Alone). Wright, Ian. Pippin Publishing Corporation (UTP), 2002. 139 p. ISBN 0-88751-094-9.

This teacher resource emphasizes that there is no better day than today to teach our children the value and rewards of critical thinking. It defines critical thinking as the ability to make reasoned judgments in problematic situations. It also demonstrates how critical thinking can be applied to social studies and other subject areas. It includes practical activities and assessment approaches (including rubrics). Chapters focus on critical thinking, teaching critical thinking, and assessing critical thinking.

This resource is based on current research. It is suitable for a wide range of learning styles, promotes active learning and creativity, and is well organized.

Our World: Canadian Communities

(Integrated Resource). Massey, Don. (Our World). Nelson (NEL), 2005.

This resource includes a Big Book, a Student Book and a Teaching Resource with Blackline Masters. The Blackline Masters are also available online at no extra charge. Our World: Canadian Communities, is a made for Alberta resource that matches the outcomes in the Manitoba Social Studies Grade 2, Cluster 2 with limited applications in Clusters 1 and 3. It provides excellent information for three Canadian communities: Regina; Iqaluit; and Bouctouche as well as a great deal of information about Alberta.

Note: The metal coil-binding on the Teacher's Resource is not well suited to making photocopies due to the thickness of the booklet.

Prairie: A Natural History (Non-Fiction). Savage, Candace. Greystone Books (HCP), 2004. 308 p. ISBN 1-55054-985-5.

This teacher resource is recommended for Grades 2, 4, and 5. The clusters include:
Grade 2: Cluster 2: natural resources
Grade 4: Cluster 1: physical geography
Cluster 3: physical features
Grade 5: Cluster 1: mapping
Cluster 3: daily life (as background for the Fur Trade)

As a teacher reference, it discusses the Prairies in terms of a place in which to live with all the plants, insects, animals, and birds that co-exist there. The pictures/maps are colourful and the detailed content is well organized and easy to find. Black-and-white line drawings that illustrate the diversity of the Prairies are also included. The background information helps in dealing with environmental citizenship (restoring and conserving the prairie ecosystems). Integration with science is supported.

  - Managing Information and Ideas

- Tools for Learning: Book 4; Passing on Information (ISBN 1-896081-54-1)
  - Managing Information and Ideas

The four-volume resource, full of “how to” ideas for research and study skills, could support all learners from grades 2 to 8.

The tools for reading in the content areas are useful for English language arts, social studies, science, mathematics, art, and drama. This colourful, well-organized resource highlights key words and employs excellent graphic organizers. There are 100 tools throughout the four books which include: portfolios, note-taking, bibliography production, cause and effect charts, making timelines, point of view, reading fiction and non-fiction, writing essays, and web page production.

Teacher Note: The content in the four volumes is highly relevant for Grades 2 to 8 students; however, the visuals may not be as age appropriate for grades 7 and 8 students as they are for younger students.
