

Grain elevators, signposts of the west for generations of Canadians, are rapidly disappearing from the prairie skyline. But in the small community of Ingils, Manitoba, the last row of 1920's standard grain elevators in Canada still stands intact. Thanks to the joint effort of local residents, Parks Canada and many others, these sentinels of the prairies have been saved and are now being restored.

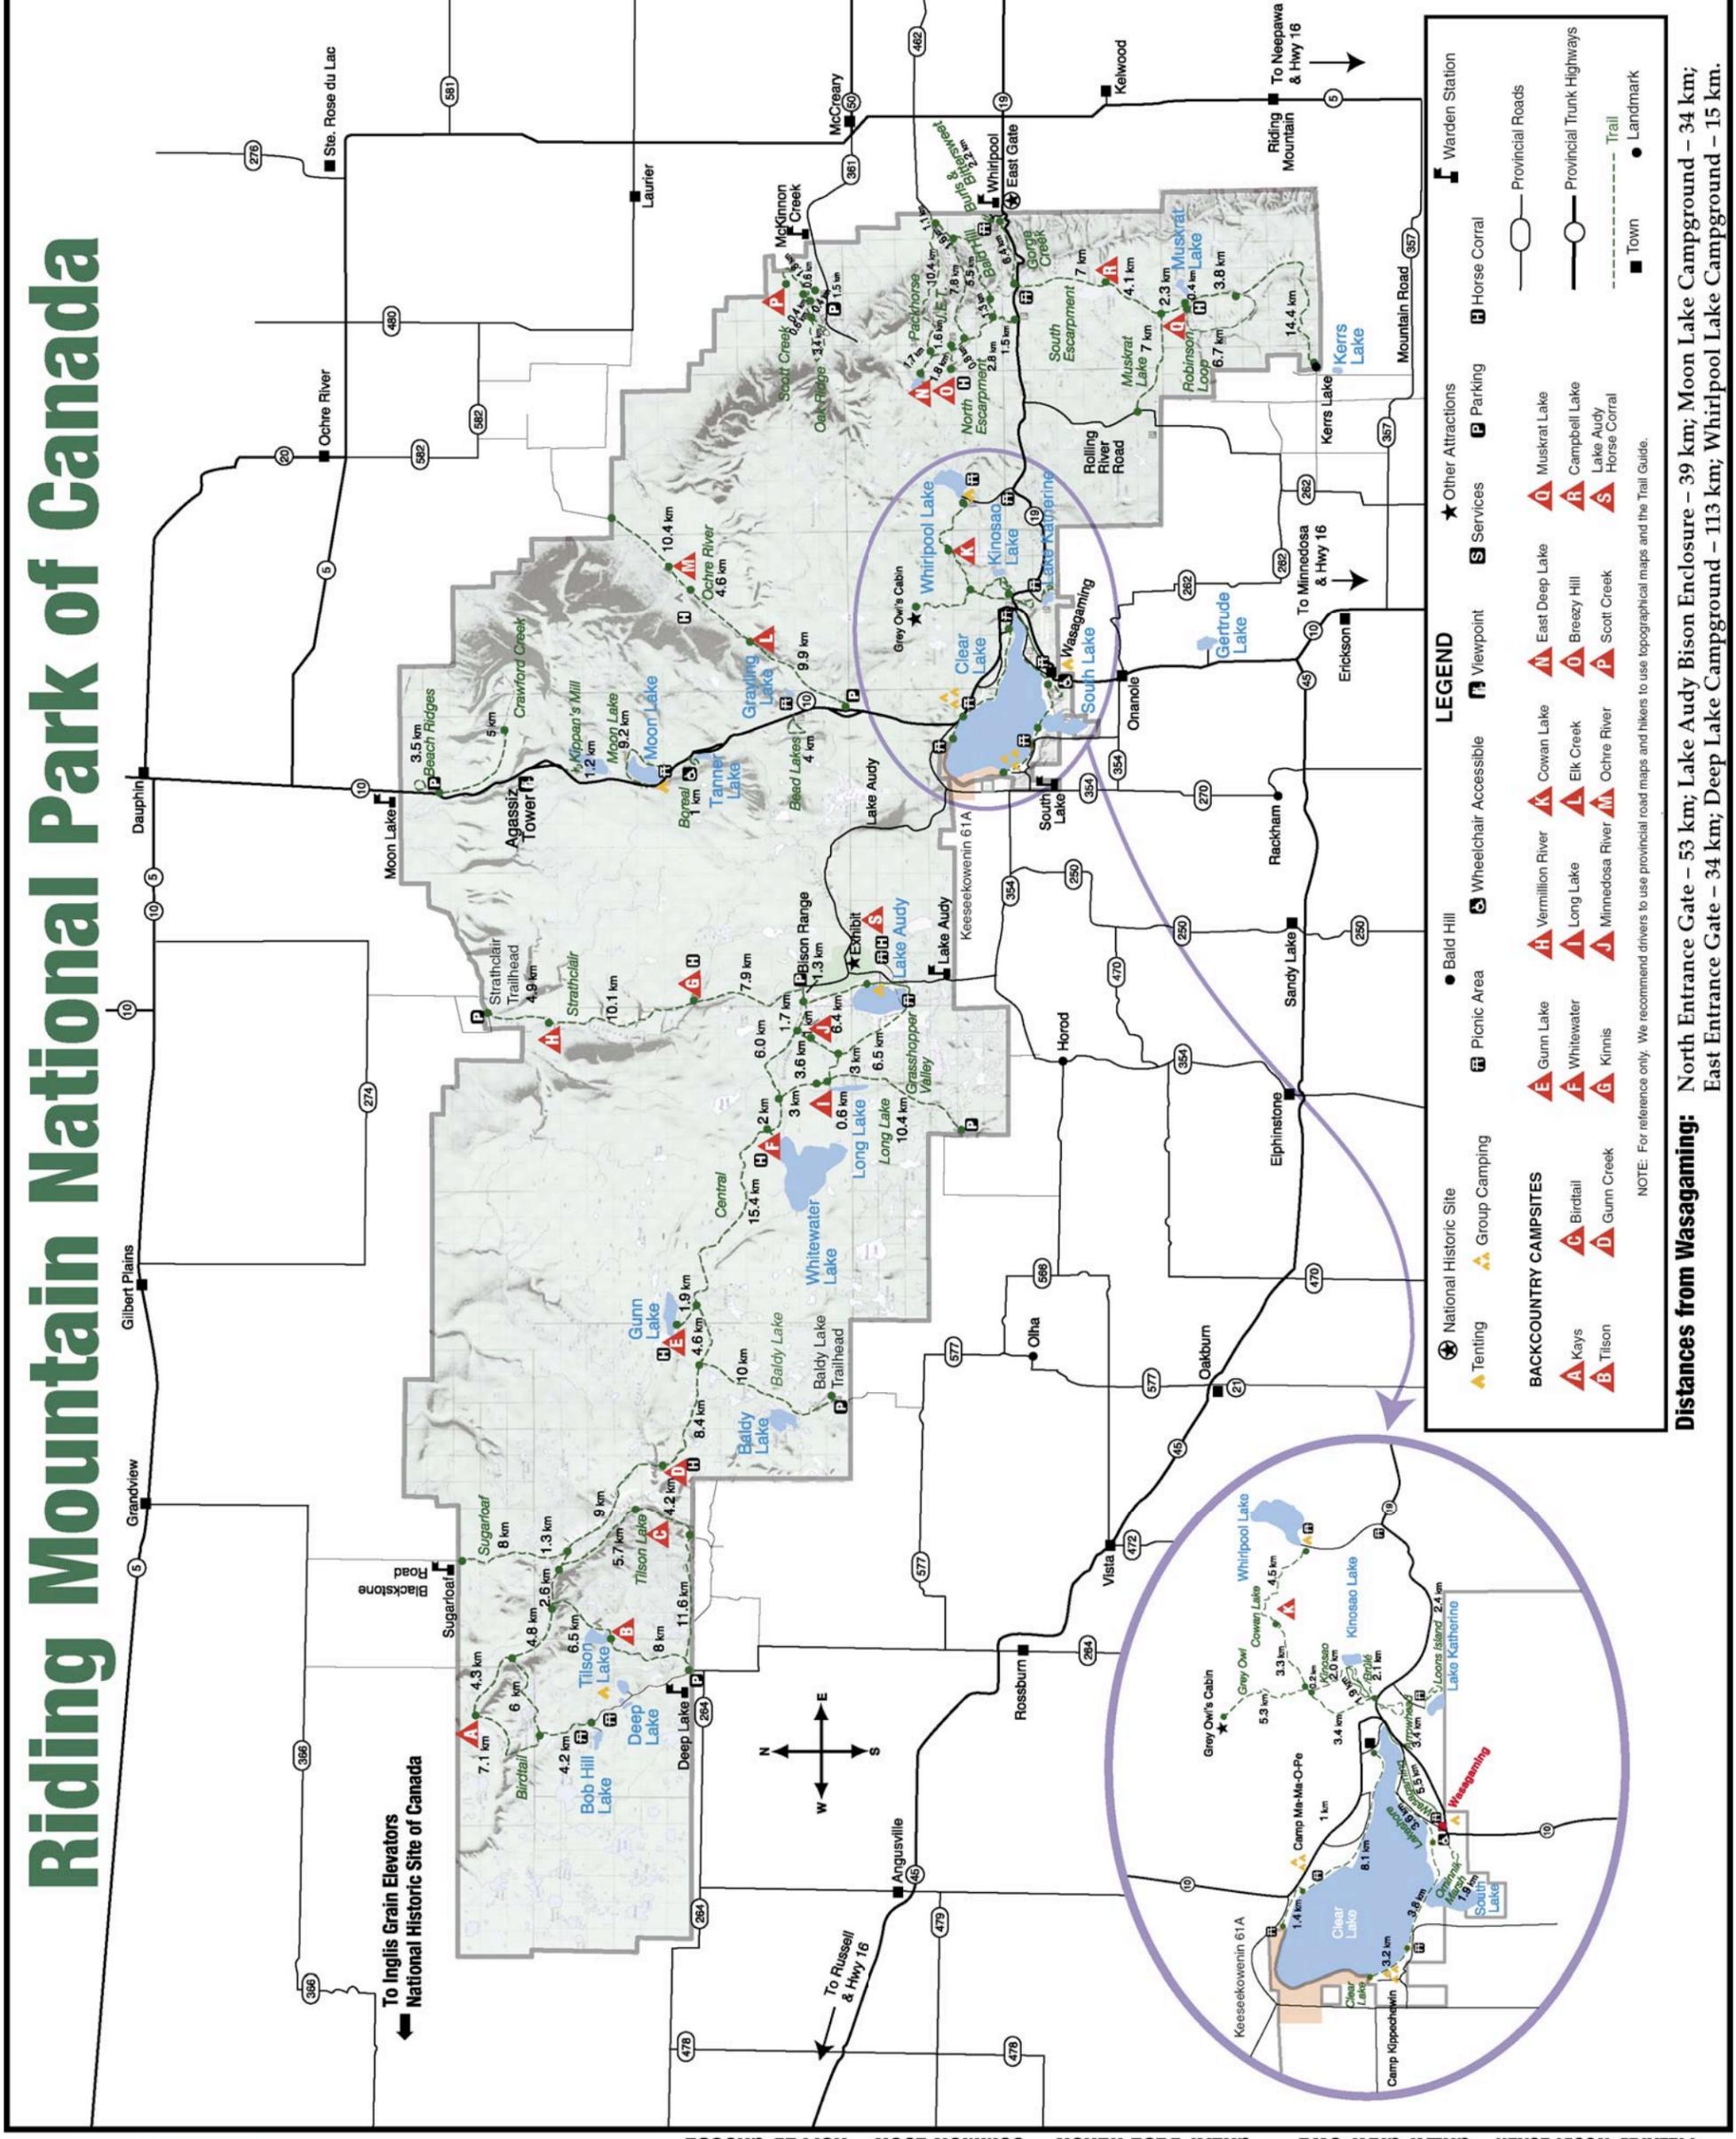

PILEATED WOODPECKER GREAT GRAY OWL GREAT BLUE HERON COMMON LOON RUFFED GROUSE

Riding Mountain National Park of Canada

COUGAR LYNX ELK DEER RACCOON BISON MOOSE RED FOX

LEGEND

- National Historic Site
- Tenting
- Group Camping
- Bald Hill
- Picnic Area
- Wheelchair Accessible
- Other Attractions
- Services
- Viewpoint
- Parking
- Horse Corral
- Warden Station

BACKCOUNTRY CAMPSITES

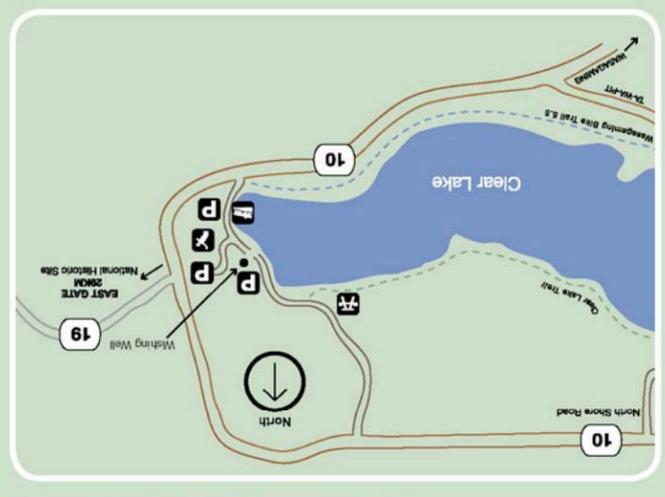

- A Kays
- B Tilson
- C Birdtail
- D Gunn Creek
- E Gunn Lake
- F Whitewater
- G Kinnis
- H Vermillion River
- I Long Lake
- J Minnedosa River
- K Cowan Lake
- L Elk Creek
- M Ochre River
- N East Deep Lake
- O Breezy Hill
- P Scott Creek
- Q Muskrat Lake
- R Campbell Lake
- S Lake Audy

Provincial Roads
Provincial Trunk Highways
Trail
Town
Landmark

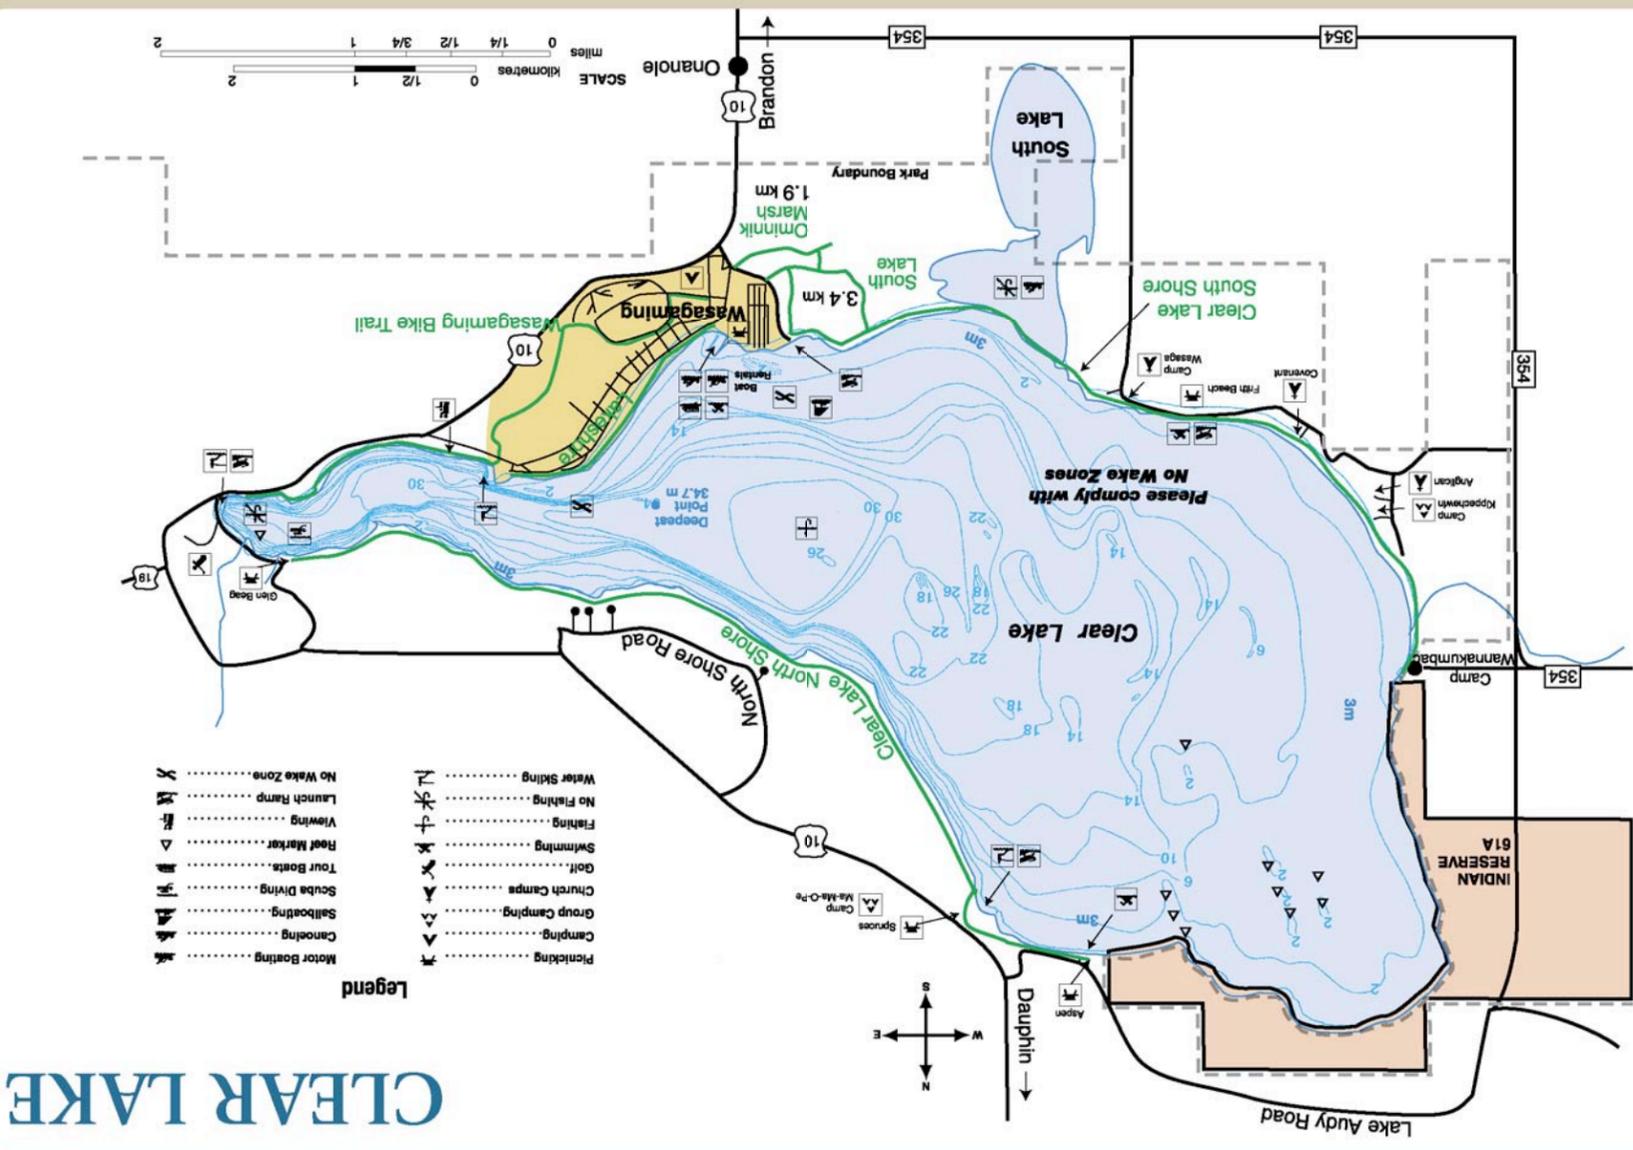

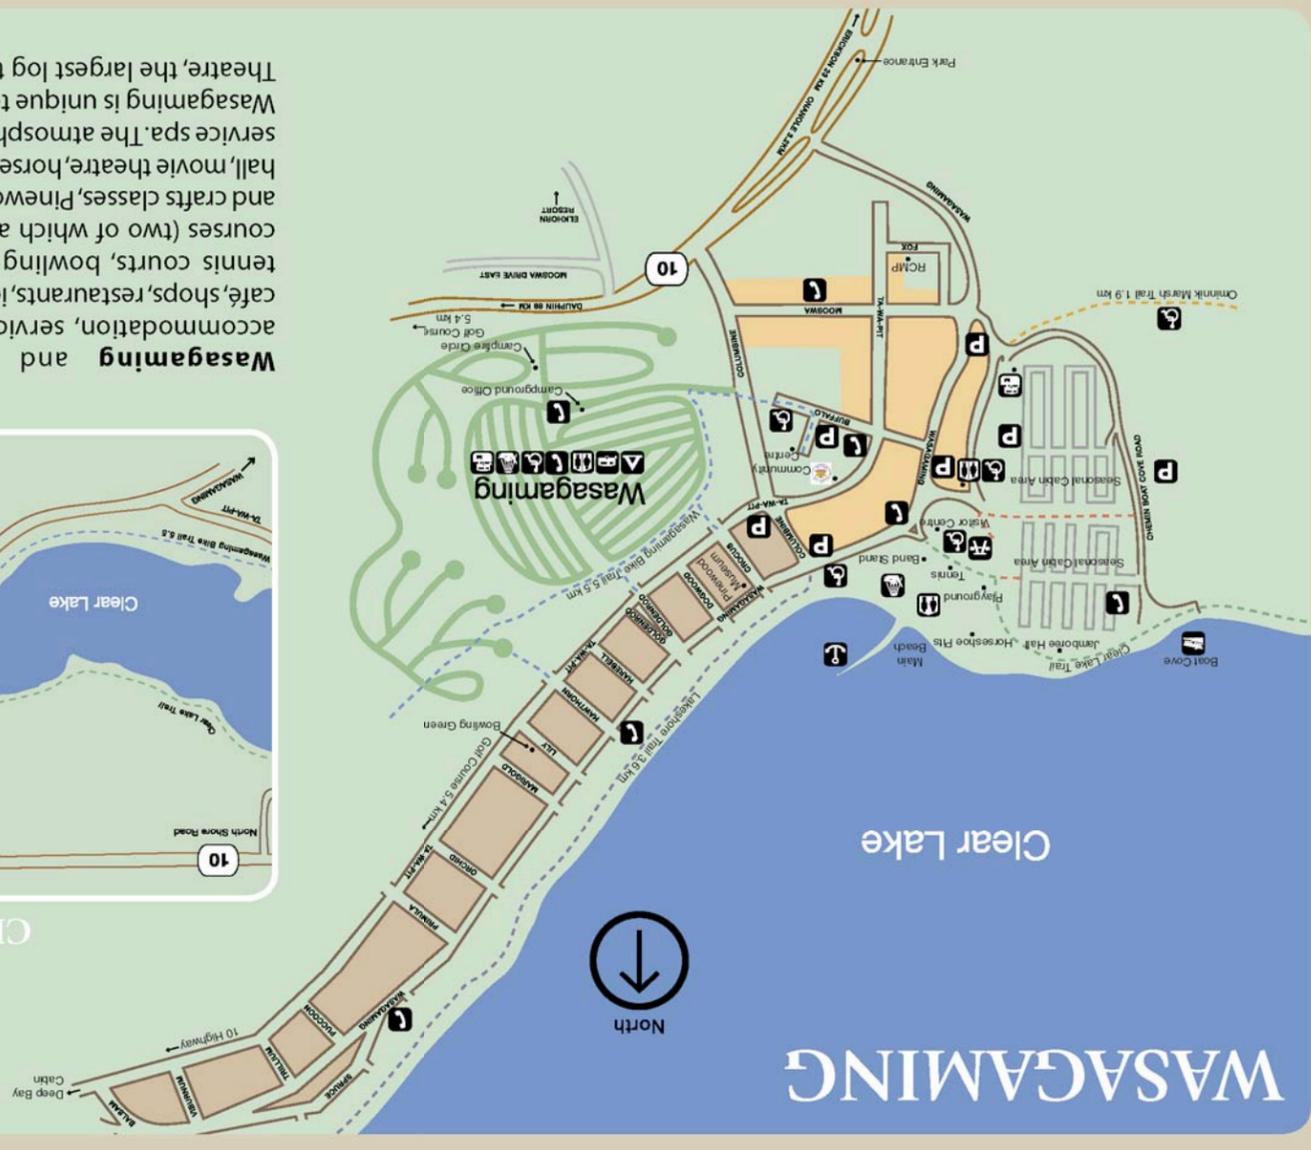

Distances from Wasagaming: North Entrance Gate – 53 km; Lake Audy Bison Enclosure – 39 km; Moon Lake Campground – 34 km; East Entrance Gate – 34 km; Deep Lake Campground – 113 km; Whirlpool Lake Campground – 15 km.

NOTE: For reference only. We recommend drivers to use provincial road maps and hikers to use topographical maps and the Trail Guide.

Wasagaming and nearby facilities provide accommodation, service stations, laundromat, Internet, cafe, shops, restaurants, ice cream parlours, bicycle rentals, tennis courts, bowling green, tree lawns, three golf courses (two of which are 18 holes), children's park, arts and crafts classes, Pinewood Museum, paddle-boat, dance hall, movie theatre, horseback riding, mineral pool and full-service spa. The atmosphere and rich historic character of Wasagaming is unique to this area. It is also home to Park Theatre, the largest log theatre in North America.

CLEAR LAKE EAST END

CLEAR LAKE