

When Cultures Meet

List ways people of two different cultures may react when they first meet one another. Start with the three examples listed below, categorize your ideas into positive and negative reactions, and describe what might happen.

Examples:

They may not understand one another.

They may learn from one another.

They may assume they are enemies.

Positive Reactions	What might occur if this happens...
Negative Reactions	What might occur if this happens...