

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter I	Introduction to The Manitoba Special Education Review	1
A.	Background	1
1.	Special Education in Manitoba	1
2.	The Manitoba Special Education Review	1
B.	Review Roles and Responsibilities	4
1.	Special Education Review Steering Committee	4
2.	The Consultant - Proactive Information Services Inc.	4
C.	Considerations for Conducting the Review	5
1.	Assumptions	5
2.	Factors	6
3.	By-Products of the Review Process	8

Chapter II	Areas of Inquiry - Key Findings, Discussion and Recommendations	10
	AREAS OF INQUIRY	10
1.	Identification of Special Education Programs and Services	10
2.	Examination of Special Education Policies, Practices and Procedures	11
3.	Assessment of the Quality and Cost Effectiveness of Special Education Programs	11
4.	Examination of the Strengths and Limitations of Costs and Funding Models	12
5.	Examination of Intersectoral Planning in Relation to Special Education	12
A.	Identification of Special Education Programs and Services	13
1.	What special education programs and services are currently being provided by divisions/districts throughout the province?	13
2.	What delivery models are being used? How do these respond to the needs and strengths of students?	14
3.	Are programs and service models compatible with provincial policies?	17
4.	How do programs and service delivery models correspond to best practices as described by current research?	18
5.	How appropriate and effective are the current provincial service delivery requirements and expectations (including Annual Division Action Plans)?	20
6.	In what areas and to what degree should schools and divisions/districts have flexibility in programming and service delivery? What are the implications for setting public policy?	22

B. Examination of Special Education Policies, Practices and Procedures	23
1. How do Manitoba's special education policies, practices and procedures compare to those in other Canadian provinces and territories?	23
2. How do Manitoba's special education policies, practices and procedures compare to what are considered to be internationally recognized research-based best practices?	25
3. How do provincial special education policies and procedures impact on the delivery of programs and services in divisions/districts?	28
4. How does the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and other legislation affect special education provincial policies and procedures?	29
5. How does the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and other legislation affect the delivery of special education programs and services?	30
6. To what degree do current special education policies and procedures reflect the government's educational renewal plans and initiatives?	31
C. Assessment of the Quality and Cost Effectiveness of Special Education Programs	33
1. Are students who require services or programs identified through the use of consistent criteria and assessment practices?	33
2. What factors must be present for the existence of a supportive learning environment that accommodates the needs of all students and leads to successful student outcomes?	35
3. Are culturally appropriate special education programs and services available?	40
4. Are current programs and services meeting the emotional, social, physical, and academic needs of students in the estimation of parents/guardians, students, educators and other service providers?	41
5. What criteria and processes are used to evaluate the implementation and effectiveness of special education programs and services?	44
6. Are special education human and financial resources being appropriately and efficiently used in program and service delivery?	45
D. Examination of the Strengths and Limitations of Costs and Funding Models	51
1. How does Manitoba's funding model compare to those in other Canadian provinces and territories?	51
2. What are the costs of special education programs and services being delivered in divisions/districts throughout the province?	53
3. What fiscal resources are necessary to support special education programs and services? How are they best provided?	55
4. What processes need to be in place to ensure that funds to support special education programs and services are used appropriately and effectively?	60
5. How can the diverse needs of students receiving special education programs and services be balanced with those of other students in terms of the demands on human and financial resources?	61

E. Examination of Intersectoral Planning in Relation to Special Education	63
6. How do existing special education policies and practices affect intersectoral planning, particularly by the Children and Youth Secretariat, and the delivery of services?	63
7. What are possible avenues for more effective and better coordinated service delivery among Manitoba Education and Training, other government departments, intersectoral and community agencies, and divisions/districts?	64
8. Are there changes that can be made in policy, planning processes, funding mechanisms, resource allocation and/or service delivery arrangements that will lead to enhanced outcomes for students, including improved transition to post-school opportunities?	67
F. Suggestions for Further Research	68
G. Dissemination of the Review Report	69

Chapter III Process and Method for Conducting the Review

A. Administration of the Review Process	70
1. Steering Committee Process	70
2. Use of Expert Associates	71
3. Development of a Detailed Framework and Workplan	72
4. Internal Office Procedures	72
5. Review of Annual Division Action Plans	73
6. Development of a Communications Plan	73
7. Contact with Key Stakeholders	74
B. Methodology for Component 1: Literature, Policy, Legal, and Funding Reviews	76
1. Literature Review	76
2. Policy Review	77
3. Analysis of Legal Arrangements for Special Education in Manitoba	77
4. Funding Review and Financial Analysis	77
C. Methodology for Component 2: Consultation Process	79
1. Community Forums	79
2. Submissions	85
3. Intersectoral Interviews	87
D. Methodology for Component 3: Case Studies	88
1. Selecting the Case Studies	88
2. Design and Administration of the Case Studies	92
3. Analysis and Reporting	96

Chapter IV Literature Review

A. Introduction	98
-----------------------	----

B. Brief Historical Overview	100
C. Issues in Special Education	102
1. Categorization	103
2. Inclusion and Integration	106
3. Effective Instructional Practices and Assessment	111
4. Educational Outcomes and Transition Out of School	119
5. The Role of Parents, Caregivers and Community	122
D. Issues Within the Manitoba Context	127
1. Fetal Alcohol Syndrome and Fetal Alcohol Effects	127
2. Emotional Behaviour Disorder	137
3. Students “At Risk”	144
E. Concluding Remarks	152

Chapter V Cross-Jurisdictional Review of Special Education Policies, Practice and Procedures

154

A. Background to the Review of Policies, Practices and Procedures	154
B. Overview	155
1. Policy/Philosophy	156
2. Practice/Procedures	157
3. Coordination of Services	157
4. Identification/Assessment	158
5. Individual Education/Program Plan (IEP/IPP)	158
C. Policy Review - Canadian Jurisdictions	159
1. British Columbia	159
2. Alberta	165
3. Saskatchewan	171
4. Ontario	176
5. Quebec	178
6. New Brunswick	179
7. Nova Scotia	182
8. Newfoundland and Labrador	185
9. Prince Edward Island	190
10. Northwest Territories	190
11. Yukon	193
12. Manitoba	196

D.	Selected Review of Policy - United States	203
1.	Special Education Policy	203
2.	Practice	204

Chapter VI Legal Arrangements for Special Education in Manitoba 207

A.	Introduction to the Legal Analysis	207
B.	Background	208
C.	'Basic' Education	213
D.	Constitutional Analysis	215
1.	Background to the Constitutional Analysis	215
2.	Cases Related to The Charter	217
E.	The Legal Framework	224
1.	The Legislation	224
2.	The Right to Attend School For Special Needs Children	226
F.	Special Education Legislation in Other Canadian Jurisdictions	231
1.	Newfoundland and Labrador	231
2.	Prince Edward Island	232
3.	Nova Scotia	232
4.	New Brunswick	233
5.	Quebec	235
6.	Ontario	236
7.	Saskatchewan	238
8.	Alberta	240
9.	British Columbia	240
10.	Northwest Territories	242
11.	Yukon	242
G.	Manitoba	243
1.	The Regulations	243
2.	Policy	251
3.	Special Education in Manitoba: Policy and Procedural Guidelines for Education of Students with Special Needs in the Public School System (The 1989 Policy Document)	257
H.	The Child as Person	263
I.	Conclusion	269

Chapter VII Review of Funding Models and Financial Arrangements for Special Education 271

A.	Cross-Jurisdictional Funding Review	271
1.	British Columbia	272
2.	Alberta	274
3.	Saskatchewan	276
4.	Ontario	278
5.	Quebec	280
6.	New Brunswick	281
7.	Nova Scotia	281
8.	Newfoundland and Labrador	282
9.	Prince Edward Island	283
10.	Northwest Territories	284
11.	Yukon	284
12.	United States	285
B.	Manitoba: Funding Model and Reporting Structure	287
1.	Funding Model	288
2.	Financial Reporting in Manitoba	296
C.	Manitoba: Financial Analysis	299
1.	Information Sources	300
2.	Revenue	302
3.	Expenditures	303
4.	Support to Function 200 Exceptional	308

Chapter VIII The Consultation Process 316

A.	Introduction to the Consultation Process	316
B.	Discussion of Findings from the Public Consultation Process	316
1.	Community Forums	317
2.	Submissions	326
C.	Discussion of Findings from the Intersectoral Interviews	340
1.	Manitoba Education and Training	340
2.	Other Departments/Organizations	347

Chapter IX Case Studies 354

A.	Introduction to the Case Studies	354
----	--	-----

B.	Discussion of Case Study Analysis	355
1.	Background to the Cross Case Analysis	355
2.	Background on Special Education in the Case Study Divisions	356
3.	Service Delivery in Practice	367
4.	Provincial Policies, Practices and Procedures	375
5.	Quality and Effectiveness of Special Education Programs	385
6.	Examination of Strengths and Limitations of Costs and Funding Models	438
7.	Intersectoral Collaboration	444
C.	Concluding Remarks	454

Chapter X Review Recommendations 456

A.	Special Education Programs and Services in Manitoba	456
B.	Special Education Policies, Practices and Procedures	458
C.	Quality and Cost Effectiveness of Special Education Programs	459
D.	Strengths and Limitations of Costs and Funding Models	461
E.	Intersectoral Planning in Relation to Special Education	463
F.	Suggestions for Further Research	464
G.	Dissemination of the Review Report	465