SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY ARTS PROGRAM

www.edu.gov.mb.ca/scap

A joint initiative of Manitoba Education, Manitoba Culture, Heritage and Tourism and Manitoba Healthy Living, Youth and Seniors, the School and Community Arts Program includes three initiatives designed to support the artistic development of students and communities with limited access to arts education programming and events.

Please check the program which you are applying to for funding. If we determine your application is better suited to one of the other two programs, it will be automatically redirected.

- Arts Education Access Program:
Supports the development of curriculum-based arts education programs in under-served communities.
- After School Arts Enrichment Programming:
Supports new and existing after-school arts instruction/activities for students who do not normally have access to arts programming.
- Youth Performing Arts Travel Grant:
Provides financial support for public school performing arts groups participating in off-site performing arts events in or outside Manitoba.

Please use the application form (do not re-format on your computer) and make sure to sign the form and have it postmarked by the application deadline. Do not fax your application.
