Social Studies Skills

Active Democratic Citizenship

6.1.1 Implement and exercise the rights and freedoms of the Charter of Rights and Freedoms.
6.1.2 Identify and explain examples of democratic processes in Canada, including voting, elections, and referendums.
6.1.3 Describe the role of civic responsibility in democratic processes.
6.1.4 Identify and explain the importance of active democratic citizenship in maintaining a healthy democracy.

Managing Information and Ideas

6.1.5 Compare and contrast diverse perspectives in a variety of information sources.
6.1.6 Compare differing accounts of historical events.
6.1.7 Assess the validity of information sources.
6.1.8 Draw conclusions based on research and evidence.

Critical and Creative Thinking

6.1.9 Explain the importance of agriculture in the development of Canada from 1867 to 1914.
6.1.10 Describe daily life on a prairie homestead between 1890 and 1914.
6.1.11 Appreciate the importance of immigration in the development of Canada.
6.1.12 Identify the prime ministers of Canada from 1867 to 1914 and give examples of their contributions.
6.1.13 Identify the roles of Father Noël-Joseph Ritchot and Archbishop Alexandre-Antonin Giguère in the development of Canada.
6.1.14 Listen for the overlapping of system groups in the development of Canada.
6.1.15 Make suggestions for ways to promote the rights of First Nations, Inuit, and Métis.

6.2 World War II

6.2.1 Describe the contributions of the United Nations to the development of Canada from 1945 to 1999.
6.2.2 Identify the main responsibilities of elected representatives of their community.
6.2.3 Appreciate the benefits of living in Canada.

Canada Today: Democracy, Diversity, and the Influence of the Past

6.4.1 Describe the nature of volunteerism on a country and community level.
6.4.2 Evaluate the impact of technological development on life in Canada from 1914 to 1945.
6.4.3 Describe the struggle for and identify individuals involved in women's suffrage in the twentieth century.
6.4.4 Identify major causes and events of the First World War.
6.4.5 Canadian Democracy in the World Context

6.5.1 Describe the influence of the First World War on the development of communities.
6.5.2 Identify the contributions of rural communities in the development of Canada.
6.5.3 Identify the main responsibilities of municipal, provincial, First Nations, and federal governments.
6.5.4 Identify and describe the multi-cultural identities of individuals.
6.5.5 Identify individuals and community events that have influenced the development of Canada.
6.5.6 Identify the major events that have shaped the development of Canada.

6.6.1 Expressions of Canadian Identity

6.6.2 Appreciate the benefits of living in Canada.
6.6.3 Appreciate the sacrifices that soldiers and other Canadians made during the World Wars.
6.6.4 Identify the prime ministers of Canada from 1867 to 1914 and give examples of their contributions.
6.6.5 Identify the main responsibilities of elected representatives of their community.
6.6.6 Appreciate the benefits of living in Canada.

6.7.1 Describe the influence of the First World War on the development of communities.
6.7.2 Identify the contributions of rural communities in the development of Canada.
6.7.3 Identify the main responsibilities of municipal, provincial, First Nations, and federal governments.
6.7.4 Identify and describe the multi-cultural identities of individuals.
6.7.5 Identify individuals and community events that have influenced the development of Canada.
6.7.6 Identify the major events that have shaped the development of Canada.

6.8 Farming the Land

6.8.1 Describe the relationship between agriculture and the economy.
6.8.2 Explain the importance of agriculture in the development of Canada from 1867 to 1914.
6.8.3 Identify the main responsibilities of elected representatives of their community.
6.8.4 Appreciate the benefits of living in Canada.
6.8.5 Identify the main responsibilities of elected representatives of their community.
6.8.6 Appreciate the benefits of living in Canada.