

INDIGENOUS IDENTITY DECLARATION

A VOLUNTARY CHOICE THAT SUPPORTS INDIGENOUS LEARNERS.

Families of First Nations, Red River Métis, and Inuit students are invited to declare their child's Indigenous identity within Manitoba's education system.

Declaring is optional and helps schools and school divisions better support Indigenous students.

WHY DECLARE?

CHOOSING TO DECLARE HELPS:

- Strengthen Indigenous-focused programs and supports
- Guide education planning and resources
- Reflect the real identities and experiences of Indigenous students

YOUR CHOICE:

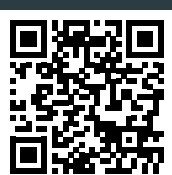

- Declaration is voluntary
- Families may declare or update information at any time
- Families may choose not to declare

PRIVACY:

All information is protected under The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FIPPA).
