

Student CFE Reflections

Reflection and self-assessment options available to the student include a

- written assignment
- informational interview
- skills assessment
- personal portfolio
- presentation
- collage
- interview
- skit

Students working on more than one CFE should be encouraged to select for each credit a self-reflection that highlights their continuing growth and development.