

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	v
-------------------------	----------

Grade 12 Cinema as a Witness to Modern History	1
Course Overview	1
Cinema as a Witness to History and a Product of History	4
Pedagogical Foundations and Approach	7
Guidelines for Film Selection for This Course	16
Critical Media Literacy	26
Glossary of Film Terms	47
Cinema Timeline	55
Getting Started: A Survey of Our Movie-Watching Habits	65
History and Cinema	68
Should Cinema Be Used to Teach History?	72
How Can Cinema Be Used to Teach History?	74
Historical Thinking	87
Suggested Assessment Guidelines for the Course	89
Using Film as an Instructional Tool	97
Course Planning and Design	102
Planning Film Viewing: Optimal Screening Conditions	104
General Note-Taking Grid for Film Viewing	108
Note-Taking Guide for a Historical Documentary Film	110
Course Planning and Design	111
Suggested Guidelines for the Film Screening Journal	113
Suggested Historical Topics	115
Cinema as a Witness to Modern History
Filmography—Recommended Study Films	117

Appendices	131
Doctor Strangelove	133
Persepolis	141
Manufactured Landscapes	147
The Necessities of Life	155
Metropolis	161
The Lives of Others	167

The Great Dictator	175
Life is Beautiful (La vita è bella)	185
Kandahar	193

Bibliography201