

Defining Confederation

July 1, 1867 is regarded as the date Canada became a country, which happened because of an event called Confederation. Based on what you know about Canadian history and Canada Day, and using a dictionary if you wish, work with a partner to define the "Confederation" that is Canada.

At the time of Confederation, what changed in Canada?	Did Canada continue to change after Confederation? How?
Some notes from a dictionary or another source that help us decide what Confederation means:	A diagram to illustrate what we think Confederation means:
Confederation is like...	Confederation is unlike...
Here is what we think Confederation means, in our own words:	Here are three questions we have about Confederation:  1.  2.  3.
Leave this space to record how you would like to change or add to your ideas at the end of your study of Confederation.
