

Active Democratic Citizens

5.4.5
b

When we think of active democratic citizens, what do we mean?

As a group, fill out the chart below to describe the actions, decisions, and values of active democratic citizens. Then, using what you have learned about Canadian history and what you know about living in Canada today, think of some examples of active democratic citizens.

(You may want to look in the newspaper to find examples of active democratic citizenship. Remember, not all citizens need to be famous people.)

Values (what a citizen thinks of as important)
Actions (what a citizen does as a member of a community)
Decisions (how a citizen makes decisions, alone or with others, in a community)
Examples of people who were active democratic citizens in Canada's history:	Examples of people who are active democratic citizens in Canada today: