

After the Great War

Use the words listed below to write short phrases describing how daily life and work in Canada changed after the Great War. Sort the phrases by short-term and long-term effects of the war on the chart that follows.

veterans

manufacturing industries

labour unions

tensions

workforce

farmers

wheat prices

women workers

low wages

munitions

costs of war

jobs

strikes

working conditions

pensions

factories

industries

technology

unemployed

medical costs

transportation

communication

Western Canada

immigrants from central Europe

