

- The federal government is responsible for matters that affect the whole country.
- Aboriginal government is responsible for matters that affect the rights of First Nations, Inuit, and Métis citizens.
- The provincial government is responsible for matters that affect the well-being of people in Manitoba.
- Municipal government is responsible for local matters that affect the residents of a town, city, village, or rural municipality.

Sort the responsibilities listed in the left column into the boxes on the right.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - local roads - highways - immigration - education - driver's licences - passports - government on First Nations reserves - health and hospitals - education on reserves - negotiating fishing and hunting rights with federal government - Supreme Court of Canada - managing natural resources in Manitoba - relations with other countries - ambulance - military defence - international aid or relief - negotiating Aboriginal land rights with federal government - water and sewer - RCMP - local police - courts and laws - garbage pick-up - protecting the environment - street signs - trimming trees in towns - relations with Aboriginal peoples - war and peace 	Federal <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - immigration - passports - relations with other countries - Supreme Court of Canada - relations with Aboriginal peoples - RCMP - military defence - war and peace - international aid or relief - protecting the environment 	Aboriginal <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - government on First Nations reserves - education on reserves - negotiating fishing and hunting rights with federal government - negotiating Aboriginal land rights with federal government - protecting the environment
	Provincial <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - highways - education - driver's licences - health and hospitals - managing natural resources in Manitoba - courts and laws - protecting the environment 	Municipal <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - local roads - local police - trimming trees in towns - street signs - garbage pickup - ambulance - water and sewer - protecting the environment