

Article Analysis – World Population Issues

7.1.3

j

Select an article about one of the following topics:

- ✓ world population distribution
- ✓ major world cities
- ✓ movement of people in the world
- ✓ population change
- ✓ more-developed and less-developed nations

If the article presents only facts without expressing a point of view on the subject, complete the Fact-Based Article Analysis. If the article presents a particular opinion or point of view on the subject, complete the Issue-Based Article Analysis.

Fact-Based Article Analysis

Title, source, date of article:	Key idea in one sentence:
Summarize the main points in your own words.	Draw a diagram to represent the main points.
List the facts presented in point form, underlining five key words .	Write two questions you have about the topic.
This article is important or not important because ...

Issue-Based Article Analysis

Title, source, date of article:	Write the issue as a question.
State the author's opinion in your own words.	State in point form the evidence given to back up this opinion.
Draw a diagram to represent the author's perspective on the issue.	Do you agree or disagree with the author? Explain why or why not.
What further information do you feel you need on this issue?
This article is important or not important because ...

