

Map-Making Criteria

7.4.1
h

Criteria	Assessment Scale
The map has a clear title.
All places are represented accurately to scale (in correct proportions).
Major cities are correctly located.
Major landforms and bodies of water are correctly located.
A compass rose indicates direction.
The legend explains all symbols used on the map.
The map is clear and easy to read.
Some lines of latitude and longitude are accurately indicated on the map.
The shapes of landforms are accurately represented.
Colours, lines, and symbols are used to represent information effectively.
The map is neat and attractively presented.
Other criteria:	