Compare and Contrast Frame: Primary and Secondary Sources

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Primary Sources</th>
<th>Secondary Sources</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>List four or five examples of primary sources.</td>
<td>List four or five examples of secondary sources.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

How are primary and secondary sources alike?

How are primary and secondary sources different?

Write a summary statement explaining your opinion of the usefulness of primary sources and secondary sources in historical research. (Give reasons.)

---

List four or five examples of primary sources:
- Personal letters
- Diaries
- Interviews
- Photographs

List four or five examples of secondary sources:
- Books
- Articles
- documentaries
- Biographies
- Historical monuments