

Manitoba's Paid Work Experience Tax Credits help employers create jobs and training opportunities in our province. These new tax credits provide financial incentives for employers to offer work experience to students, apprentices, recently certified journeypersons and recent co-op graduates.

Tax credits are available for employers who hire:

- high school vocational students
- apprentices (including high school apprentices) and recently certified journeypersons
- co-op students and recent co-op program graduates

These are refundable tax credits claimed on the employer's income tax return. Only one tax credit may be claimed for each eligible employee per tax year.
