

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	iii
Introduction	vii
Purpose	vii
Background	vii
Content	viii
Chapter 1: Learning and Teaching in the Multilevel Classroom	1.1
Application of Best Practices to Multilevel Classrooms	1.3
The Research Underpinnings	1.4
Benefits of Multilevel Classrooms	1.6
Rewards of Meeting Challenges	1.9
Resources	1.9
Chapter 2: The Learning Community	2.1
Partners in the Learning Community	2.3
The Independent Learner	2.3
The Teacher	2.7
The Parents	2.14
The Administrator(s)	2.15
The Dynamic Learning Community	2.16
Resources	2.16
Chapter 3: Assessment and Learning in the Multilevel Classroom	3.1
Best Practices in Classroom Assessment	3.3
Differentiating Assessment	3.4
Formative and Summative Assessment	3.5
Monitoring Classroom Assessment	3.7
Assessment As a Shared Responsibility	3.8
Reporting Student Progress and Achievement	3.9
Assessment for Learning	3.10
Resources	3.10
Chapter 4: Differentiation in the Multilevel Classroom	4.1
Planning for Differentiated Instruction	4.3
Considerations for Differentiating Instruction	4.4
The Workshop Format	4.8
Differentiating for Student Success	4.11
Resources	4.11

Chapter 5: Curriculum Integration in the Multilevel

Classroom 5.1

- Integration across Subject Areas and Grades 5.3
- Integrating English Language Arts 5.4
- Integrating Mathematics 5.7
- Integrating Science 5.11
- Integrating Social Studies 5.13
- Integrating Physical Education/Health Education 5.15
- Integrating Information and Communication Technologies 5.17
- Planning for Integration through Inquiry 5.18
- Resources 5.19

Chapter 6: Integrated Learning through Inquiry: A Guided

Planning Model 6.1

- The Inquiry-Based Learning Community 6.3
- The Guided Planning Model 6.5
- Multidisciplinary Learning through Inquiry 6.15
- Resources 6.16

Blackline Masters 1

- BLM 1: Reflection—Metacognition
- BLM 2: Constructing Student-Generated Criteria for Quality Work
- BLM 3: My Learning Goal Log
- BLM 4: Assessment Plan: Year-at-a-Glance
- BLM 5: Focused Observation Form
- BLM 5A: Focused Observation Form (Example)
- BLM 6: Daily Observation Form
- BLM 7: Our / My Learning Plan
- BLM 8: Evidence of Learning
- BLM 9: The Four-Column Planner
- BLM 10: Student-Parent-Teacher Conference Record
- BLM 11: Record-Keeping Form
- BLM 11A: Record-Keeping Form (Example)
- BLM 11B: Record-Keeping Form (Example)
- BLM 12: Parent Brochure

Appendices 1

- Appendix A: Assessment and Evaluation in the Multilevel Classroom 3
- Appendix B: Planning Model (The Third Column) 4
- Appendix C: Sources of Strategies for Multilevel Classrooms 9

Glossary 1

Bibliography 1